As I was welcomed into our Brave world, sometimes seemingly purposeless and insurmountable hurdles occupied these 180 days at Kempville Junior High School.

I was only one Brave who entered into the midst of over 1700 others.

But I was — and am — my self.

Larry,

AFTER the temporary loss of identity

I slowly came to realize there is method in all this madness of this school world I had entered, and Braves have encouraged me,
alienated me,
reprimanded me,
applauded me,
criticized me, and
understood me
to help me grow into what I am today.

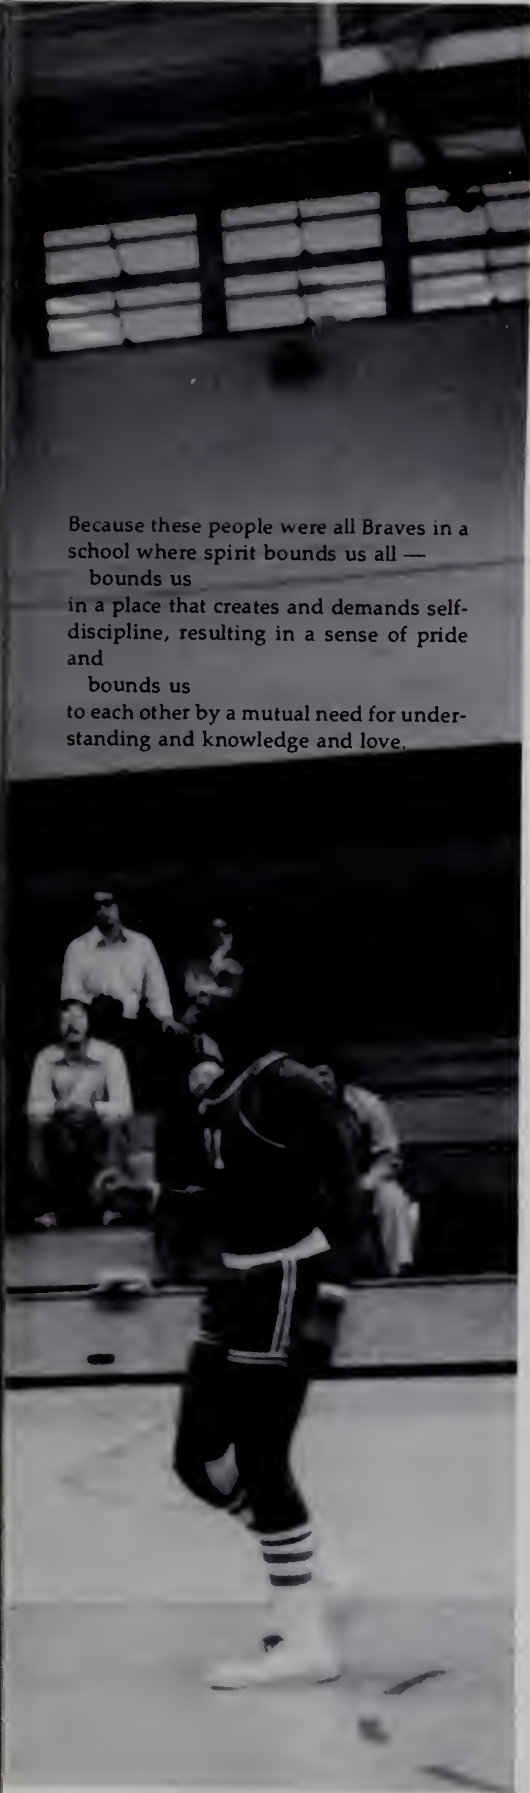

Easy take
it easy
be cool I'll catch ya next

Because these people were all Braves in a school where spirit bounds us all —
bounds us
in a place that creates and demands self-discipline, resulting in a sense of pride and
and
bounds us
to each other by a mutual need for understanding and knowledge and love.

UNITY was instilled

us face our disillusionments and frustrations and become a part of creative activity while laughing at some of the routine, discovering and nurturing identity,

developing a sense of responsibility, looking beyond these 180 days and swinging between the now and tomorrow.

that I was not alone in my world of struggles with isolation,
and loneliness,
and joy.

Foley,
in fifteen years
you'll pull this animal
out of your clappy
bedroom (probably
under your dirty
underwear) and remember all the good times & bad times the gang had together. All the times
Mrs Eator preached
to us about blocking
the public thoroughfare.
And all the honnies
you pinched and all
the fights me & Mary got into.

I And I know you'll
finally ^{never forget}
C.B. & H.R.

that other Braves entering along with me had developed
a sense of integrity with the successes in daily battle and gained a truer appreciation for the Awakening to see the world,

Revealing levels of life,
Finding happiness,
Forging spirit, and Showing they care.

Big Three keep world moving

To keep our world moving in the right direction, with as few upsets as possible. Mr. Perkinson, Mr. Griffen, and Mr. Lumpkin somehow managed not to let the many problems — from the school being overcrowded to the students' not following procedures — get them down. Problems were tackled very realistically with the student remaining the center of how and why solutions were or were not reached. If needed, the administration never hesitated to hand out the discipline. On the other hand, a pat on the back or a friendly smile came too. These folk were real people helping us students to cope in our real world of school.

IN MEMORIAL

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

IN MEMORIAL

MARY JEAN CLINE
1960 — 1974

One word frees us of all the weight and pain of life:
That word is LOVE.

SOPHOCLES

Love, sweet Chloe, is a god, a young youth, and very fair, and winged to fly. And therefore he delights in youth, follows beauty, and gives our phantasy her wings. His power's so vast that that of Jove is not so great. He governs in the elements, rules in the stars, and domineers even o'er the gods that are his peers . . . All flowers are the works of Love. Those plants are his creations, and poems. By him it is that the rivers flow, and by him the winds blow.

WELCOME TO OUR WORLD

From the many diverse courses throughout the various departments and disciplines came the Braves who were

Crowding halls,
Moaning tests,
Breaking into new horizons, Perceiving details, Diffusing knowledge, and Resting momentarily.

From the different clubs and extra-curricular activities came the Braves who were

Seeking a new life,
Sharing sadness,
Involving others,
Spreading joy,
Displaying pride, and Doing their own thing.

To a great
guy. This is has really been
But I don't agree.
over I'm still glad it's I see you at the high school next yr.
If I make it there,
I'll have a ball this summer and
stay high and
cool! Love
always,
